Revelation 1:8 and 22:12-16
Wednesday, October 12, 2022

1. Who is identified as the speaker in Revelation 1:8?

Who speaks in Revelation 22:16?

What conclusion can you draw from that comparison?

2. How does the average person respond to Jesus' promises in 22:12 about his return and his reward?
3. Do you think Jesus just got things on earth started and will someday wind things up but that he pretty much ignores what is going on in between? Explain your answer.
4. What views have you heard about how human history will end?

How does it make you feel to know that Jesus will be the one who brings the human story to the conclusion he desires?

5. Who are the people who are granted access to the eternal city and the tree of life (v.14)?

6. What does Jesus' description of those who are excluded from the city tell you about their spiritual condition and relationship with God (v. 15)?

7. How does Jesus' claim to be the sovereign Lord over history- and over your life- help you face the successes and tragedies of your daily experience?

8. As you think back through the claims Jesus has made in these studies, which one has blessed or encouraged you most? Explain why.

9. What difference does knowing who Jesus is make in how we live each day?
